Premise

Terry the Troll is on The Gross Show to reveal to his wife, Sandra, that he’s been cheating on her with a hooker. They live under the bridge that he works on during the day as a toll collector. They’ve been in a rough patch due to him working two jobs (the second being the late shift at McDonald’s) and her being unable to find work. Terry the Troll has been seeing Candy behind the dumpster at McDonald’s during his lunch break and is paying her in Big Macs that he steals. Terry is unaware of Candy’s secret, that she is actually a man. Pimp Daddy X is here to pitch his business and make sure that his property doesn’t get damaged.
